Alex Stein is a Professor of Law at Cardozo Law School. Before joining Cardozo in 2004, he served for more than a decade at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem Faculty of Law. He also served as a visiting professor at Columbia, Miami and Yale Law Schools. His specialty areas include Torts, Medical Malpractice, Evidence, Criminal Procedure, and Economic Analysis of Law. He authors two books, Foundations of Evidence Law (Oxford University Press, 2005) and Tort Liability under Uncertainty (Oxford University Press, 2001, with Ariel Porat), and over sixty articles of which many have appeared in leading journals. Prof. Stein was one of the founding editors of Theoretical Inquiries in Law and is on the editorial board of the International Journal of Evidence & Proof. In 2013, he launched an e-journal STEIN on Medical Malpractice that covers all significant developments in medical malpractice laws across the United States. He graduated from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and earned a Ph.D. from the University of London.
